● The Danville Children's Guild is an organization of women committed to improving the quality of life for children in Contra Costa County by raising funds for various children's charities and youth organizations. Established in 1977 by Mary Church (an East Bay Junior League member) who felt a need to concentrate on her own local community, the group has raised monetary support for various children's charities throughout Contra Costa County for over 40 years. Jeanie Hess is a top producing agent for COMPASS in the East Bay. As a mother of three who raised her family in the area, she has a passion for the community and local children. With this passion, she is proud to support the Danville Children's Guild. Their annual fundraiser will be held on November 4, 2019 at the Diablo Country Club.
